

THIS IS THE ONE

With the spotlight on the 'One Minute Rule', make sure you ask for the SE5000 Exakt.

Six months ago the SE5000 Exakt became the first 'One Minute Rule' ready tachograph on the market. Today it's the one name on everyone's lips.

That's because it's the one tachograph that's already helped over 5,000 operators* discover how much driving time they can gain. And the more time your drivers get behind the wheel, the more they can save for your business. So when you specify a 'One Minute Rule' tachograph, make sure you don't look any further than the SE5000 Exakt.
