

CONSERVATORY REPAIRS, GLAZING & MORE

PENWORTHAM GLASS LTD

Tried fixing that leaky conservatory and it still leaks? Or never replaced that misted double glazing? Mick Walmsley has repaired conservatories and glazing, including 24-hr emergency call-out, for over 14 years.

With more than 20 years in uPVC and glazing, he is confident of what he does. "We find where the leak is and fix it for good. We're competitively priced and beat most quotes for the same quality products and quality of install," he says.

Joiner Mick, 42, has an HNC in Building Studies, and was a surveyor for a large national company, before going on his own in 2001.

He said rather than smother a leak with silicone, they take out the panel, renew sealing tape and re-fix the panel securely. In severe cases, they replace a conservatory panel – even the whole roof. The panels they install (above, right) are lighter and keep conservatories cool in summer and warm in winter. They also install
